

IT WORKSHOPS for TEACHERS THE BRITISH SCHOOL BRUSSELS

Friday 5 - Sunday 7 June 2009

Leuvensesteenweg 19, B - 3080 Tervuren, Belgium Tel: +32 (0)2 766 04 30. www.britishschool.be email: dhindley@britishschool.be

Using your interactive whiteboard

Led by Mary Rebelo

Ideal for Teachers of all age groups from all subject areas

Making the most of the Promethean Board and Activstudio Software in a beginners and an advanced course. The Sunday morning course focuses on the use of the SMARTBOARD.

Virtual Learning Environment (Moodle)

Led by Ian Usher

(E-Learning Co-ordinator from Buckinghamshire County Council)

Ideal for Teachers of all age groups from all subject areas

Beginners and advanced courses for teachers that wish to use Moodle in their teaching. Also, hints and tips on how schools are using Moodle.

Interactive Mathematics Teaching and Learning at MYP, IGCSE, GCSE, A Level and IB

Led by Alan Catley

Ideal for all High School/Secondary Mathematics Teachers

Alan returns this year for new courses on using IT in the Mathematics classroom. The title says it all!

Interactive Geography Teaching

NEW

Sessions led by: Richard Allaway.

Ideal for all High School Geography Teachers

Making a Geographer's Life Easier with ICT and Geographic Information Systems (GIS) on the Cheap

Digital Video Training

Led by Tom Barrance
(Director at Media Education Wales)

Ideal for Teachers of all age groups from all subject areas

Tom returns to offer both a beginner and an advanced course in using a digital video in your teaching. An ideal course for those teachers wishing to inspire imagination and creativity amongst their students.

MEDIA EDUCATION WALES

Easy videoconferencing collaboration, rich media and E-Learning tools

NEW

Led by Ian Usher

Mobile phones and the Internet

NEW

Led by Daragh Comerford

Data logging for Mathematicians and Scientists

Led by Jef Dreezden

Full details of all courses can be found in our IT conference brochure. Contact details at top of page.

Learning together
inspiring success