

Anyone who believes
exponential growth can go on forever in a finite world is either a madman or an economist.

Kenneth Boulding (1910-1993)

An economist, educator, peace activist, poet, religious mystic, devoted Quaker, systems scientist, and interdisciplinary philosopher.

