

Using the Cambridge Ordnance Survey Map from Key Geography - Foundations (David Waugh).

What is the distance, in a straight line, between the railway station in Great Shelford and:

- 1) the church in Hauxton?
- 2) Cambridge railway station?
- 3) the post office in Newton?
- 4) the school in grid square 4849?
- 5) the bridge at grid reference 431542?

What are the following distances, to the nearest half of a kilometre?

- 6) Between Great Shelford railway station and Cambridge railway station following the railway?
- 7) Between motorway junction 11 and motorway junction 12 following the motorway?
- 8) Between the roundabout at grid reference 421568 and the roundabout at grid reference 444577 following the A603?
- 9) Between Foxton railway station and Cambridge railway station following the railway?
- 10) Between Foxton railway station and Cambridge railway station following the road, as if you were driving a car?

Using the Cambridge Ordnance Survey Map from Key Geography - Foundations (David Waugh).

What is the distance, in a straight line, between the railway station in Great Shelford and:

- 1) the church in Hauxton?
- 2) Cambridge railway station?
- 3) the post office in Newton?
- 4) the school in grid square 4849?
- 5) the bridge at grid reference 431542?

What are the following distances, to the nearest half of a kilometre?

- 6) Between Great Shelford railway station and Cambridge railway station following the railway?
- 7) Between motorway junction 11 and motorway junction 12 following the motorway?
- 8) Between the roundabout at grid reference 421568 and the roundabout at grid reference 444577 following the A603?
- 9) Between Foxton railway station and Cambridge railway station following the railway?
- 10) Between Foxton railway station and Cambridge railway station following the road, as if you were driving a car?